The Role of Nuclear Energy in Decarbonization and Powering the AI Era

Tuesday, September 23, 2025 | 10:00 - 11:30 am ET | Zoom

As AI drives new electricity demand and countries pursue net-zero, nuclear energy is back in the spotlight. This panel will examine cost and deployment trends, safety and public acceptance, supply chains, and policy implications—with a comparative lens across the U.S., EU, and China.
